

CIG Media Group Institutional Subscription License

The following describes the terms of the license under which the CIG Media Group, LP (hereafter designated as "Publisher") grants institutional subscribers at designated locations (hereafter designated as "Institution") online access to its publications. "Journal" will be used to indicate any one or all of the CIG publications for which licensing is offered.

Upon purchase of an Institutional subscription to a CIG Journal, the Publisher will issue a valid account number so that the Institution may gain access to the Journal. By purchasing a subscription to any of the CIG journals, the Institution and CIG agree to the following terms and conditions:

1. SUBSCRIPTION ACCESS: An online subscription permits unlimited simultaneous Internet access to complete Journal content by Authorized Users for the entire subscription term. Secure proxy access from off-campus or off-site locations is allowed. Access is granted to the faculty, staff, students, library patrons, and other authorized users of the Institution, provided that they access the Journal from an authorized Internet Protocol ("IP") address. Distance learners and other off-campus affiliates may access the Journal if their Internet access is through the campus or company network or via a secure proxy server that falls within the authorized IP address range. This agreement permits use of the Journal on designated and agreed-to campuses or company sites only. This agreement does NOT permit use of the Journal or sharing of this resource among a regional consortium, unless explicitly agreed to by the Publisher.
2. COPYRIGHT: Unless otherwise noted, the Publisher holds the copyright on all materials published in the Journals, whether in print or electronic form, both as a compilation and as individual articles. All Journal content is subject to "fair use" provisions of US or applicable international copyright laws [<http://www.copyright.gov/title17/92chap1.html>].

3. AUTHORIZED USE: Authorized users are permitted to reproduce or disseminate Journal content within the parameters of applicable copyright law. The following uses are specifically authorized:
 - a. Downloading: Downloading, printing, or saving of Journal content for the purposes of research, teaching, and/or private study by Authorized Users is permissible. Systematic downloading (by robots or other automatic processes) is prohibited without explicit Publisher approval.
 - b. Interlibrary Loan: Institutional subscribers may fulfill interlibrary loan requests from other institutions via fax or paper document delivery under National Commission on New Technological Uses of Copyright Works (CONTU) guidelines [<http://www.cni.org/docs/infopols/CONTU.html>]. Redistribution of Journal content to non-authorized users in electronic or digital form is prohibited without prior Publisher approval.
 - c. Accessibility: Institutional subscribers may transcribe any portion of Journal content into Braille script, enlarged type, or other appropriate versions in order to allow Authorized Users with disabilities to access Journals.
 - d. Course Packs: Institutional subscribers may use a reasonable portion of Journal content, in printed or digital format, in the preparation of course packs or other educational materials for Authorized Users.
 - e. Rights and Permissions: For permission to copy or reproduce journal content (tables, figures, images, abstracts, etc.), contact the Copyright Clearance Center by phone: 978-750-8400, fax: 978-750-8400, or e-mail: info@copyright.com.
 - f. Reprints: For purchasing commercial or author reprints of articles, contact Bill Hipple at the Reprints Department by phone: 214-367-3348, fax: 214-367-3301, or e-mail: bill.hipple@cigjournals.com.

4. RESTRICTIONS:

- a. Non-authorized users: Except as specifically provided elsewhere in these guidelines, Institutional subscribers are prohibited from making agreements for access to Journal content with individuals, organizations, vendors, affiliates, or partners who are not Authorized Users.
- b. Commercial redistribution: No direct commercial re-use (eg, downloading, posting of a file, or printing to sell or distribute to any non-authorized user) of any Journal content is permitted without prior express written permission of the Publisher. Permission is granted, however, to provide a limited amount of print or electronic Journal content for purposes of regulatory approval, patent, and/or trademark applications or other legal or regulatory purposes.
- c. Removal of copyright notice: Institutional subscribers agree not to remove, cover, overlay, obscure, block, or change any copyright notices, legends, or terms of use.
- d. Modification: Institutional subscribers shall not modify or create a derivative work of any Journal content without the prior written permission of the Publisher.

5. AUTHENTICATION: Institutional subscribers will make reasonable efforts to create and maintain appropriate security measures to ensure that only Authorized Users can access subscribed Journal content online.

- a. IP addresses: Institutional subscribers affirm that all IP addresses provided for use of online Journals are controlled by the Institution exclusively for Internet access by Authorized Users.
- b. Abuse: If Institutional subscribers become aware of unauthorized access to Journals, they will notify the Publishers immediately and cooperate in locating and attempting to stop the specific individuals who are abusing the service. If the specific abuser(s) cannot be identified or stopped, the Publisher has the right to withhold, suspend, or terminate access to any or all Journal content, without liability.

6. ARCHIVING: The Publisher acknowledges that Institutional subscribers may participate in the LOCKSS system for archiving digitized publications. To benefit from this support, Institutional subscribers must install a LOCKSS cache at their Institution. (See <http://lockss.stanford.edu> for further information.) The Institutional subscriber may perpetually use the LOCKSS system to archive and restore Journal content as long as the Institutional subscriber's use is otherwise consistent with these guidelines.

7. TECHNICAL ACCESS: The Publisher and its Subcontractors intend for Journal Web sites to be available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. However, the Publisher and the Subcontractors WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR DAMAGES OR REFUNDS SHOULD A SITE BECOME UNAVAILABLE TEMPORARILY OR ACCESS TO A SITE BECOMES SLOW OR INCOMPLETE because of system back-up procedures, Internet traffic volume, upgrades, might from time to time make Journal content inaccessible to Institutional subscribers. The Publisher will make reasonable efforts to notify Institutional subscribers of any unusually extended interruptions and will attempt to restore access to sites as soon as possible.

8. WARRANTY: The Publisher affirms it has obtained from its authors any and all necessary permissions to license Journal content and that use of such content by Authorized Users in accordance with these guidelines shall not infringe the copyright of any third party. Although it seeks to ensure the accuracy of content posted online, the Publisher DOES NOT WARRANT OR GUARANTEE ITS ACCURACY, COMPLETENESS, MERCHANTABILITY, OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. Neither the Publisher nor the Institution shall be liable for any indirect, special, incidental, punitive, or consequential damages, including but not limited to loss of data, business interruption, or loss of profit, arising from the use of or the inability to use the Journal content.

9. SEVERABILITY: If any portion of these terms turns out to be invalid, illegal, under dispute, unenforceable, or in conflict with the law of any jurisdiction, the rest of the provisions shall remain applicable.

10. DISPUTES: In the event of any dispute or controversy from or relating to these terms, the Publisher and the Institution agree to exercise their best efforts to resolve the dispute as soon as possible. Any dispute that cannot be resolved by mutual agreement shall be subject to mediation or binding arbitration subject to the jurisdiction nearest to the Publisher's headquarters. Both parties shall, without delay, continue to perform their respective obligations that are not affected by the dispute. In no event shall a dispute arising from the terms of these guidelines, between a participating publisher and an institutional subscriber, subject any other participating publisher to joint and several liability or shared legal responsibility of any kind.
